"Reading is a Superpower"

When: Dec. 6th-10th

Where: Waggoner Reading Area

Students will be able to shop in-person during their lunch recess time.

We will also be open for 1-hour after school for in-person shopping.

*Please note kids must have an adult with them for after school shopping.

We will have challenges, games, activities and book raffle drawings throughout the week.

Guess the Jar, How Many Pages in the Stack, Unmask the Hero,
Book Raffle, & Guess the Book Cover Emoji

3 winners will be drawn each day. They will receive a $5-gift certificate to the Book Fair.

*All students can participate and enter

Online shopping is available Dec.3rd-Dec.16th and items purchased will be sent directly to your house.
FREE shipping on Book ONLY orders more than $25.

During the Book Fair, we will be collecting donations for All for Books.

Our goal is to raise $300 dollars

We will use the $$ to purchase books for our school library.

Virtual Fairs	25% of Online Sales	$0

Last few years, (prior to COVID), for our winter/fall Book Fair make around $10,000 in sales. Which means we get back $2,500 in cash or $5,000 in scholastic dollars.

What would you chose???

Scholastic is going Green

Not providing plastic table cloths or plastics bags.

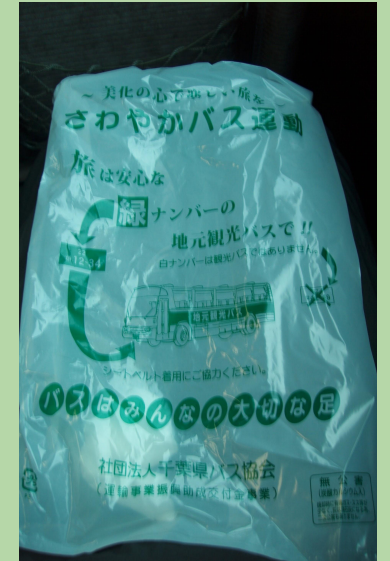

They will be providing 100 reusable bags.

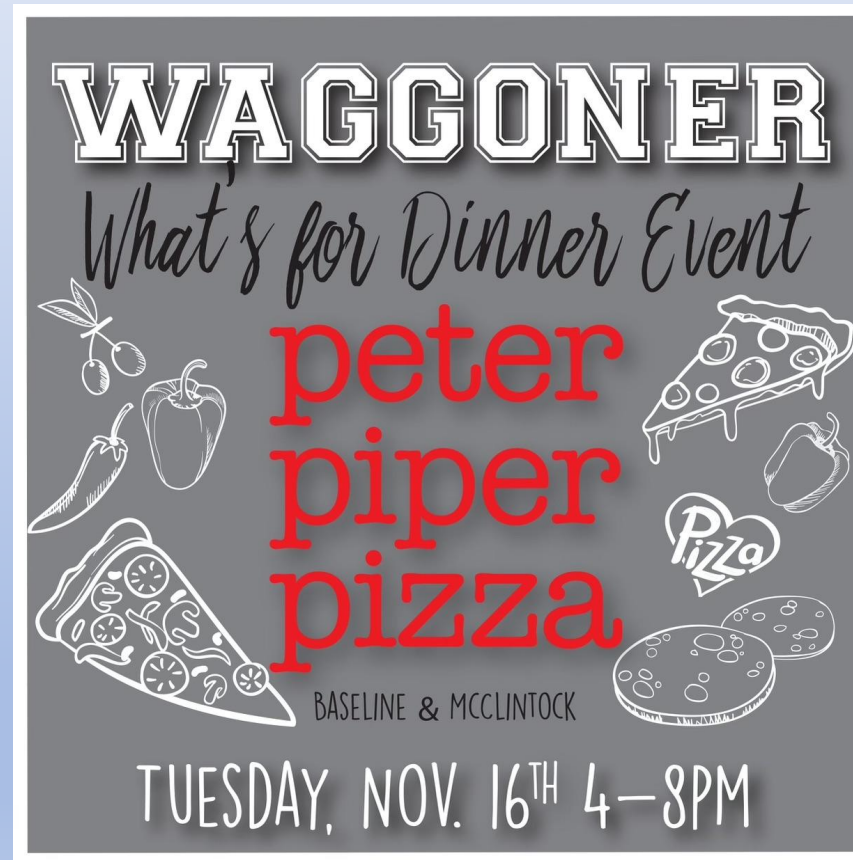

Option to order more: Some schools are using as a promo for “All for Books” or orders over $15.

Can use your own imprint or logo??

What are your thoughts??

Interested in taking on a shadow and training someone.
