Principal's Report: Mrs. Romero

- Thanks for the gifts for Principal's Month
- Thanks for putting together a great Trunk of Treat
- The science cart is being coordinated with teachers and projects
- Parent Superintendent Council was hosted by Waggoner last week and about 50 people attended – great turnout and opportunity to show off Waggoner
- Positive Parenting Class will be 11/15 on Brain Science the relationships of routines
- Reviewed the AZ Merit format & scores from last year, for Waggoner, Kyrene, and the state. Kyrene outperformed the state, Waggoner fell below Kyrene as a whole.
- Mrs. Erasquin shared details about how students will be helped when they are behind.
- Looking for substitute teachers. Reach out to Mrs. Romero if you are interested.

Treasurer Report: Kim Reitz

- Reviewed Treasurer Report. Deposited Step It Up check this week for $31,000, so that will show up next month. Checks deposited for Zoyo, Skateland, and Culvers fundraisers, plus Fry's checks.
- Spend on Playworks (teacher training), instructional supplies for teachers, and various administrative expenses

Review & Approve Meeting Minutes

- October minutes stand as approved with no corrections

Committee Reports

First Responder's Day - Sept 27 – Stacey Clarken

- Mrs. Erasquin coordinated with classrooms and teachers created posters for the police and fire departments

Trunk or Treat - Dawn Stantus & Jen Giannetta

- Great volunteer participation & donations, low participation in the pumpkin carving contest

Teacher Appreciation - Ryan Edmiston

- October we had Staff Development Day & catered meals for conference lunches
- Upcoming: School Psychologist Week & holiday gifts

Science Closet – Susan Fishman

- We will get Room 8 for the Science Closet/Cart. Initial Phase will start next week & serve as an Art Masterpiece style lab or Science Lab. Signup Genius will be sent out next week for anyone who wants to get involved. Volunteers will be available in the room during lunch/recess if people want to go.

Art Masterpiece - Shannon Winer, Meghann Powell

- Met Wednesday to plan for the year. Goal is to get one volunteer into every classroom before Winter Break (more if possible), to teach a brief presentation on an artist and guide students through creating a piece of art.

Turkey Trot - Susan Fishman

- Since we have no home PE teacher, they will need to practice first during PE. The 2 teachers will show us the warm-ups and we will walk the kids through it. Adding obstacles this year. Need volunteers to manage obstacles, check-in, etc. Parents are allowed to run with their kids this year and stay for a picnic lunch (bring your own). Look for signup genius. It will start sometime between 8:30-noon, depending on the grade.

Book Fair - Jessica Chuang

- First in-person book fair coming up Dec 6-10. Setting up on the Friday before. See signup genius for the setup and bookfair week (During lunch/recess starting around 10am). Will have daily activities for raffles & games. "All for Books" is a program that will take donations to give back to the school library. Teachers will also be making class wish lists. Scholastic will provide a reusable bag for the first 100 people who spend over $15

What's for Dinner & Waggoner Night Out – Shannon Winer

- Peter Piper coming up (Baseline & McClintock)

Parent Superintendent Council- Paul Beakley

- Four Waggoner parents attended the last Parent Superintendent Council meeting. This month's presentation was about the plan to bridge educational gaps from an equity point-of-view. Goals for educational equity: Outcomes (all on the same page), Treatment, Opportunities to Succeed, Resources (more to those who need more), Shared responsibilities and accountability.

Website - Paul Beakley

- Committee Chairs should let Paul know if there is any information they would like loaded to the website.

Social Media – Nicole Miller

- Provide preferred text and image for posting to socials to Nicole.

Veterans Day

- Veterans Wall (stars) looks great and is up in the 4th grade hallway.
